STRUCTURE NOTES, QUANTITY TABULATION SHEETS AND SIGN SPECIFICATION SHEETS

The electronic spreadsheets for Structure Notes, Quantity Tabulations Sheets and Sign Specification Sheets can be accessed via your personnel computer. If your personnel computer does not have these programs, then contact your Personnel Computer Support person and request the program QTABS 2000.xla (Quantity Tabulation sheets and Structure Notes) and SignSpec 2000.xla (Sign Specification Sheets).

Online help is available for both the QTABS 2000 (Quantity Tabulation & Structure Notes) application, and the SignSpecs 2000 (Sign Specification) application. This help may be accessed via the [ ? ] help button located in the toolbar of each of these applications, or through the Internet at the following address:
